Karen Funk with the Worland, Washakie County Library requested approval for additional funding for the Library Expansion Grant. A motion was made by Commissioner Wolf and seconded by Commissioner Martinez to authorize Chairman Anderson to sign the cover letter for the addition grant funding request. Motion carried.

Washakie County Assessor Nancy Quinn spoke with the BOCC regarding the current plotter printer. Quinn advised that it was in disrepair and needed to either be completely replaced or, per the Selveys company, have the print head replaced in the amount of approximately $525.00. She also advised that it was possible to be put on a maintenance contract with which would cost approximately $600.00 a year plus mileage. The BOCC authorized the purchase of a new print head for the plotter and the yearly service contract with Selveys to come out of the Courthouse budget line.
